

MARIN
INTERFAITH COUNCIL

MEDITATIONS
WITH NATURE
CHAPLAIN
JOHN MUIR

Naturalists and freethinkers remind us that the earth, our beautiful blue-green globe spinning through the natural cosmos, is our true and only home. In this gathering, participants will read together the wise and wild words of John Muir, reflecting on their relevance for grateful living.

Chris Highland was a Protestant Minister and an Interfaith Chaplain in Marin for many years and has taught at Dominican University, the Graduate Theological Union and Cherry Hill Seminary. Chris has written 11 books including, Meditations of John Muir and Jesus and John Muir. Chris and his wife, Carol Hovis (director of Marin Interfaith Council) live in San Rafael. His website is www.chrishighland.wordpress.com.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2013
10:00 A.M. AUDITORIUM
COFFEE AND PASTRIES TO FOLLOW