

OLLI & GIVENS ESTATES PRESENT: A LECTURE SERIES

A SAMPLER REPRESENTING THE BEST OF OLLI AT UNC ASHEVILLE & GIVENS ESTATES

BEGINS APRIL 9

Mark your calendar for Monday afternoons, April 9 through May 14, 2-3:30 p.m. in the Williams Performing Arts Center, for series of stimulating lectures and question and answer sessions sponsored by the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UNC Asheville (OLLI) and Givens Estates.

OLLI is a member-inspired organization with a commitment to provide opportunities to thrive in life's second half through programs in lifelong learning, service, leadership and research. The OLLI College for Seniors program offers "learning for the love of it" through courses in a wide range of disciplines. In this series, some of OLLI's best instructors and some of Givens Estates' wisest residents will offer lectures on a wide variety of subjects. This is the third year of the partnership between our two organizations committed to the integration of mind, body and spirit for elders.

www.olliasheville.com

For More Information
Call Sally Kemp Bush

771-2205

Monday, April 9
Gordon McKinney
"African American
Protest Traditions
Before the Modern Civil Rights Movement"

Monday, April 16
Larry Wilson
"An American Meets Arabia"

Monday, April 23
Melanie & Mack
Johnston
"The Mountain Dulcimer"

Monday, April 30
Chris Highland
"John Burroughs and his Gospel of Nature"

Monday May 7
Cindy Berryman-Fink
"Two Remarkable
Women in History:
Prudence Crandall and Carrie Nation"

Monday May 14
George Yates
"American Foreign Policy"