

A Freethinker's Gospel

Essays for a Sacred Secular World

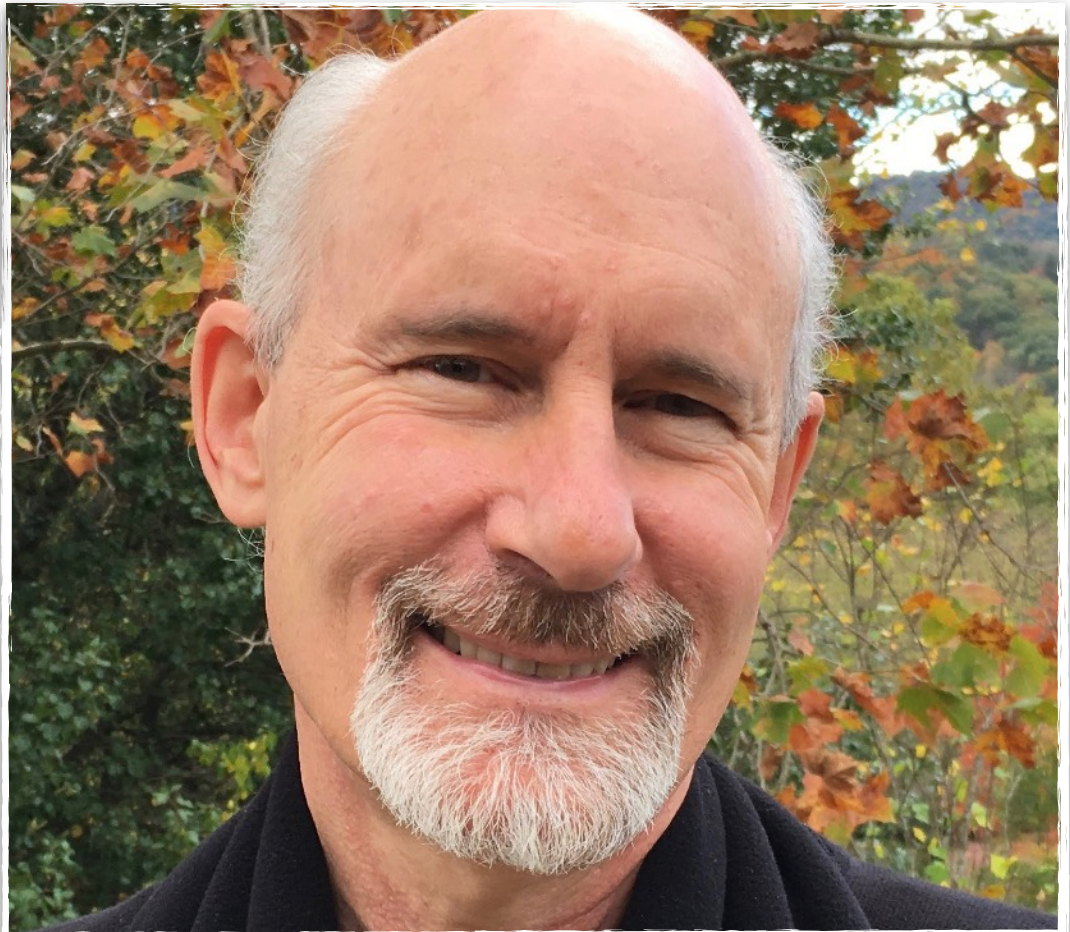

Chris Highland

Author of Meditations of John Muir and My Address Is a River

Captivating, intriguing, and challenging. Each chapter is a gem in itself...

John S. Compere, VP, The Clergy Project

CHRIS HIGHLAND

“A FREETHINKER’S GOSPEL— BRIDGES ACROSS BARRIERS”

March 3, 2019 at 10am
Coffee Underground
1 E Coffee Street, Greenville
Presented by Piedmont Humanists

Chris Highland discusses his new book, A Freethinker's Gospel, a collection of his weekly “Highland Views” columns on the Religion page of the Asheville Citizen-Times addressing issues that speak to faith and freethought. A former Protestant minister and interfaith chaplain, Chris is now a Humanist celebrant married to a Presbyterian minister. He teaches courses on Freethought at UNCA and Blue Ridge Community College. www.chighland.com

FOR MORE INFO: PIEDMONTHUMANISTS.ORG